

House District 29

1971 Apportionment Board (Democrat) Plan

Another Democrat-oriented inner-city district made possible by the suburban "throw-aways" was HD 29. It originally elected white, conservative Democrat William Kopp, but migration of blacks into the area facilitated Kopp's defeat in the 1976 primary by black liberal Les Brown. After three elections Brown was succeeded by fellow black Democrat I. Ray Miller.
