

Services and Resources for Campus FairVote Activists

FairVote - The Center for Voting and Democracy assists national and international advocates for instant runoff voting. We encourage you to take advantage of the following FairVote services and resources:

Website

FairVote strives to make all of resources available online. This includes an extensive library of articles, as well as educational materials, original research, election data and analysis, and organizing materials. Our website is www.fairvote.org.

Voting Software and Development

A key aspect of any IRV campaign is figuring out how best to process ranked ballots. Some schools have created online voting software or other procedures on their own. Additionally, FairVote has invested in the development of a user-friendly generic version of online voting software, which we may be able to meet the needs of your student body elections. FairVote is here for advice and assistance on this and any related matters.

Brochures

The IRV brochures produced by FairVote can be downloaded and printed for free using our website or, for larger amounts, may be purchased by contacting FairVote directly.

Speakers, training, and conferences

Drawing upon our nationwide network of staff, board members, allies and FairVote members; we provide speakers, conduct trainings and hold regional and national conferences for citizens, elected official and election administrators.

Legal and technical assistance

FairVote provides expert testimony and amicus briefs on voting rights and redistricting cases, as well as advice and assistance for jurisdictions considering purchasing new voting equipment.

Drafting legislation

FairVote has drafted legislation at local, state and federal levels to adopt instant runoff voting, to allow instant runoff voting and to create commissions that review election laws.

Election consulting and administration

FairVote provides consulting services to both public sector and private sector clients on all aspects of elections. FairVote does not, however, do political consulting. We assist groups wishing to conduct elections, and we provide both consulting on electoral system design as well as one-stop election services from the distribution of ballots to the certification and reporting of results. We have assisted both for-profit and non-profit organizations. We will help any organization that needs this assistance.
