

Announcing FairVote's Upgrade Democracy video contest!

Tell us what do you think ought to be done to improve elections by making a short video answering the question:

“If you could change anything you wanted about elections, what would our democracy look like?”

You could win $2000 and have your video seen by celebrity judges like filmmaker Richard Linklater (School of Rock, A Scanner Darkly), political guru Donna Brazile and The Daily Show's Dan Bakkedahl!

For full details, visit:

www.UpgradeDemocracy.com

What are the rules?

Your entry can be any kind of video: live action, animation, parody, music video, sock puppets - whatever you can think of to show how you would give democracy an upgrade!

Videos should be no more than one minute in length.

Upload your video to YouTube. Give it the tag “fairvotecontest” and send an email to upgradedemocracy@fairvote.org with the link to your entry so we know where to find it.

1st Prize: $2000
and a trip to DC

2nd Prize: $1000

3rd Prize: $500

Plus more prizes for honorable mentions

What should my video be about?

Your video should answer the question, “If you could change anything you wanted about elections, what would our democracy look like?”

Go to FairVote.org to help give you an idea what to make your video about. Instant runoff voting? Reforming the Electoral College? Fixing the primaries? It's up to you.

The deadline for submissions is September 28th, 2007

Upgrade Democracy is a project of FairVote. 6930 Carroll Ave. Suite 610, Takoma Park, MD 20912.
